Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth

Programs Committee

Monday, December 15, 2025

11:00 A.M.

Publicly accessible remote meeting location:

Embassy Suites by Hilton

2925 Emerywood Parkway, Richmond, VA 23294

An all-virtual public meeting of the Programs Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Foundation for Healthy Youth will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, December 15, 2025. The Committee’s original in-person meeting scheduled for December 9, 2025 was postponed due to inclement weather. Due to the possibility that more than two members of the Committee may be together at the above remote meeting location, it is noted that the remote meeting location is open to the public and is physically accessible at the above address and time. The public is encouraged to attend.

The purpose of the meeting will be to receive updates on grantees and programming and consider HCAT grant applications among other matters of Committee business. The Committee will entertain public comment after business. Opportunity for public comments shall be available audio visually via the electronic meeting and may also be submitted in writing via email to the below address.

Copies of the meeting agenda and full board packet may be requested at the below link:
